This stunning two-bedroom apartment boasts 76 square metres of living space, complemented by a 7 square metre balcony. Its unique curved building position allows for additional windows, ensuring an abundance of natural light that sets it apart from many other apartments. Situated on the 16th floor, this residence enjoys a direct eastern aspect, offering breathtaking penthouse views across Lake Ginninderra to Gungahlin and Mount Majura. Every live-in owner or tenant will delight in waking up to such a spectacular panorama each day.

The apartment's key feature is its exceptional liveability, thanks to its light-filled living areas and magnificent views. This sense of liveability extends beyond the apartment itself, as residents have access to resort-style amenities
